TAFT SOUNDS WARNING NOTE

Points Out Clearly the Danger Which Insurgent Rebellion Within the Republican Party Has Engendered.

SPEAKS HIS MIND AT CLUB DINNER

Says He Believes Reverse of Last Year Was Merely a Reminder of the Responsibility of the Party in Power.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—President Taft surprised a large audience at a dinner at the Hamilton club today by what most of his hearers construed as an admission of the possibility of republican defeat in the coming national election, in speaking to what promised to be an enthusiastic gathering of republicans. The republicans present hastened to ascribe the president's utterances to weariness after long speechmaking, especially after three days' hard campaigning in Chicago. It was his last public utterance in Chicago before leaving for Pittsburgh tonight.

"We are approaching what some people think," he said, "is a crisis in the republican party with reference to its continuance in the guidance of the nation. I am hopeful that the good people of the country, who know a good thing when they see it, have only chastened us a little bit in an off year in order that we may be better hereafter, but who have no intention of shifting from shoulders that are fitted to bear the burdens of our present problems and to carry them to a successful solution, to those who are untried, and who have new theories, who have new theories of action that we do not believe in; and do not believe the people believe in. However, if it develops that they desire a change we shall loyally support the government under any conditions with the hope, that it will inure to the benefit of the country, but with the consolation that if after one trail the people think they ought to go back to the old party that served them so well in the progressive days of the nation, why, we can bear that experience, that's all."

After his address the president retired to the seclusion of his hotel for rest. Though he professed no weariness, three days steady strain told on him, and it was a tired man who led the presidential party out of Chicago at five-thirty over the Pennsylvania road for Pittsburgh. The address before the Hamilton club, in which the possibility of defeat found expression, was followed by the laying of the corner stone in the new home of the Hamilton club, one of the leading republican clubs of the middle west.

ALL IS READY FOR REVIEW OF FLEET

Interesting Naval Event Will Begin Early Wednesday in the Bay at San Pedro.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 30.—With the arrival tonight of the armored cruiser Maryland, the fleet which Admiral Thomas will review off San Pedro Wednesday afternoon is completely assembled here. The review promises to be a pageant which will eclipse any naval display ever held in Pacific waters with the exception of the famous review of the battleship fleet in San Francisco bay several years ago when the fleet was on a tour around the world. The only contingency that now causes much concern is the possibility of fog. Naval officers say a review may not be held in a fog, owing to the danger of handling so many ships in such close quarters. Twenty-four ships will participate. They will leave tomorrow night at 7 o'clock and arrive off San Pedro at daylight Wednesday. After the review the fleet will remain two days, when it will disperse for various assignments, some of the ships going to Guam, others to the Orient and still others remaining on duty at coast ports.

DIVORCEE TO MARRY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Charles G. Gates, who secured a divorce from the son of the late John W. Gates last May, will be married November 15 to A. C. Migletta, assistant secretary of the Texas Oil company, one of the Gates properties.

WATSON IS WINNER.

TUCSON, Oct. 30.—A tie vote between H. E. Heighon and W. M. Watson, for the republican nomination for drawing by the board of supervisors. Seven ballots were placed in a hat, five being blank. All the blanks were drawn, then Watson's name.

RANK OUTRAGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The post office department has announced that letters addressed "to Santa Claus" and forwarded to the dead letter office will not be distributed to charitable organizations, benevolent persons or others.

Four years ago postmasters were authorized to turn over such letters to charitable persons. Because of many abuses, the order has never been renewed. Under the laws and regulations, letters to Santa Claus are classed as "fictitious" and returned to the writers or destroyed.

FIGHT GOES MERRILY ON

Representative of the American Tobacco Company and Those of Independent Interests Continue Their Struggle.

CIRCUIT COURT HEARS ARGUMENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The proposed reorganization plan of the Tobacco trust submitted by the American Tobacco company and its co-defendants to the government following the anti-trust suit, was both praised and condemned today before the federal circuit court judge for the southern district of New York. After Attorney General Wickham filed the government's answer to the plan, counsel for defendants pleaded with the court to accept the dissolution proposition. Lewis Case Ledard, arguing for the defendants insisted that it was an honest plan to comply with the requirements of the mandate of the supreme court for a reorganization that will restore competition in compliance with the terms of the Sherman anti-trust law. Supporting the plan, representatives of preferred stockholders and bondholders of the American Tobacco company and its constituent companies urged the approval of the division of the trust into four principal aggregated companies to be operated independently of each other. In support of these interests Joseph H. Choate and others who insisted that the reorganization plan was sincere, pleaded that no hostile elements be permitted absolutely to destroy it. They said the plan might be subject to some amendment calculated to assure protection to the property rights of citizens. Independent manufacturers, dealers and producers unanimously disapproved the plan on the ground that it would not effectively break up the trust, that it is a sham and that the control of all properties is still being retained by a group of individuals now dominating the industry. Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, made the principal argument against the plan and sought to convince the court that it would be impossible to bring about a restoration of the competitive system by this plan. Wickham, with special prosecuting attorneys J. C. Reynolds and Edwin P. Grosvenor, will be heard tomorrow. Judges Lcomb, Ward, Cox and Noyes are hearing the case.

TURKS HAVE TURNED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The Turkish embassy received unofficial dispatches today confirming reports that Turkish troops have recaptured part of Tripoli. The messages came indirectly and do not represent an official Turkish statement on the subject. The state department received a message from Consul John Q. Wood, at Tripoli, stating that the Italian forces have not treated the Arabs as severely as reported.

HE LONGS FOR PRISON.

SPOKANE, Oct. 30.—"A man who who cannot quit drinking has no business at large and should be in prison," said L. N. Jacobs today, "so take me back. Behind the bars one is sure of three square meals a day and eight working hours."

Jacobs was convicted of robbing a hotel room and escaped from San Quentin after serving three years of a seven year sentence.

SLAUGHTER CONTINUES.

TRIPOLI, Oct. 30.—The search for Arabs continues, and the summary slaughter is not yet ended. Nothing more deplorable than the massacres of Arabs here, has been witnessed in many years.

The Arabs who are caught are shot in groups. For three days this has continued. Many women have perished. Scarcely any large native population has escaped.

WILEY DECLINES HONOR.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley put aside a signal honor today when he declined to preside at the session of the National W. C. T. U. Mrs. Stella E. Irving stated that 1,081,451 Sunday school children had pledged the pledge last year. The convention endorsed the Flood resolution providing for changes of different kinds in the constitution of New Mexico.

REBELS MEET DEATH WHEN HANKOW BURNS

Shanghai Dispatch Says Torch Was Applied After City Had Been Retaken By Imperialists.

PEKIN, Oct.—The demand of the national assembly for a complete constitutional assembly has been ceded by the throne. An Imperial edict was issued today apologizing for past neglect of the throne in not granting an immediate constitution with a cabinet from which nobles are to be excluded. The second edict grants pardon to political offenders, connected with the revolution of 1898 and subsequent revolutions and those who joined in the present revolution.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that after the hard fought capture of Hankow the Imperialists deliberately set fire to the native city. Hundreds of wounded rebels perished.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Revolutionary leaders here are unanimous in the declaration that the plan for the constitutional government offered by the Manchus will not be accepted and the rebellion will go on until the Manchus are overthrown and a republic established.

"We don't want a monarchy," said Tong King Chong, secretary of the Chinese national committee here. "We want the right of a Manchus to sit on the throne, even if he is deprived of power. It would mean nothing for us in the end, for gradually, the old abuses would come back."

NEW YORK GAZES ON FLOATING CITADELS

Magnificent Fleet of Battleships Has Been Assembled Opposite City On the Majestic Hudson.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—With searchlights flashing and hulls and rigging outlined by myriad incandescent lights, the vessels of America's great fleet, assembled here for the presidential review, presented a picture of marvelous beauty tonight. The Hudson river, where the warships lie, is illuminated as never before. The battleship line extended to its full length today when the last of the sea fighters, assigned to take part in the review—the Dreadnaught Florida—steamed slowly from her berth at Brooklyn navy yard, on her first trip under her own steam.

WILL PRESENT NEW EVIDENCE TO JURY

Attorney for State in Linnell Murder Case May Have Discovered Some Important Facts.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—The session of the grand jury investigating charges against Reverend Clarence V. Richeson for the alleged murder of Avis Linnell, his former sweetheart, were brought to early adjournment today by the desire of the district attorney to take up what is believed to be important new evidence.

Richeson's preliminary hearing takes place in the municipal court tomorrow, the date on which he was to have been married to Miss Violet Edmonds, a Brookline heiress.

George H. Baker, who says he saw the minister and Miss Linnell talking together for ten minutes in the South station the evening preceding her girl's death, was one of the witnesses before the grand jury.

OFFICERS ARE KILLED

ROME, Oct. 30.—The Italian nobility, like the people, are paying tribute in blood, in the African conquest. Word has reached here of the death in action at Homs, Tripoli, of Duke Riccardo Grazioli Lante del Rovere, a lieutenant in the navy, of the serious wounding of Count Pompeo di Campello, a lieutenant of cavalry, and gentleman in waiting to the king. Both had many friends among Americans and were well known sportsmen, the duke was an exponent of tennis and Count di Campello a master of fox hounds.

SUCCEEDS MCALEER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Washington American league club today, Clark Griffith, manager of the Cincinnati National club, was unanimously elected manager of the Washington team to succeed James McAleer, now part owner of the Boston Americans. The contract calls for three years.

MANY SIGN PLEDGE.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—At today's session of the National W. C. T. U. Mrs. Stella E. Irving stated that 1,081,451 Sunday school children had pledged the pledge last year. The convention endorsed the Flood resolution providing for changes of different kinds in the constitution of New Mexico.

HARMONY HAS DISAPPEARED

Animosity Developed Yesterday as a Result of the Fight Waged Over the Tentative Selection of a Chairman.

ANTI-HUNT PEOPLE ARE AFTER ZANDER

Foes of Hunt Are Boosting John Birdno, of Safford, and it Seems That He Has a Good Chance to Get the Job.

There was a meeting of the democratic candidates for the state and congressional offices held in the city last night. It was held at the office of George Purdy Bullard. It was attended by Mr. Hunt, candidate for governor; by Mr. Ashurst and Mr. Smith, candidates for the senate; by Mr. Bullard himself; by Mr. Geary, who wants to be a member of the corporation commission; by Carl Hayden, who aspires to a seat in the lower house of congress, and by several of the lesser lights.

All day the candidates were arriving in the city. Mr. Hunt was early on the scene and he brought his interview with him. He gave this interview to both the democratic papers of Phoenix. It is the only interview Mr. Hunt has—only one he has ever been known to give out, at any rate. In it he declared once more for those immutable principles of human liberty which are embodied in his own proper person, and for the "progressive" which, according to his view, only he and a few other superior mortals possess.

Also, Mr. Hunt thinks he will make quite a nice governor. And the very first thing he is going to do, after getting properly inaugurated, is to send the trusty pen and write a message to the legislature advising the resubmission of the recall to the people of Arizona.

Of course, Mr. Hunt will get somebody else to write that message. The writing of messages, or of anything else for that matter, that requires proper spelling and the arrangement of words into sentences, is not Mr. Hunt's strong point.

But anyhow, Mr. Hunt said that if ever he gets attached to that recall in the north end of the capitol building he's going to write that message and that's all there is to it.

The principal object of the meeting last night was to plan for the campaign and to look over the field for some man to act as chairman of the state democratic committee. That matter was discussed pretty generally throughout the day, too.

And it was right there—just where that discussion began—that the dove of peace spread its wings and flew away. For the last important week of the democratic press of Arizona has been preaching about the beautiful harmony that prevails in the party. But you couldn't have found any harmony with a microscope yesterday.

The Hon. Hunt, candidate as aforesaid, was one of the distinguished gentlemen who gave harmony a rap. Hunt wants C. M. Zander of this city to be state chairman. There are various and sundry other gentlemen whose names will be on the democratic ticket who can't see it that way.

And the worst of it is, these gentlemen seem to be in the majority. Zander has been a mighty useful man to Mr. Hunt. He is the man who conducted the financial part of the Hon. Hunt's campaign in this county, and naturally Mr. Hunt wants to reward him for his faithful and effective services. En passant, it may be said that Zander performed a similar service for the lamented Mr. O'Neill during the late unpleasantness. But as O'Neill has gone the way of all flesh, and his inclinations are better than their molars—in other words, who bites off more than they can chew—what he thinks about Zander is of no moment.

It do seem that one John Birdno of Safford has the call for the state chairmanship. The anti-Hunt faction is boosting him to a finish and it really looks as though the Safford man will win. But it's going to be something of a fight before it is over and harmony will have several jagged holes punched in its anatomy before many moons have waxed and waned. Not a great deal was accomplished at the meeting. There was plenty of talk, there always is plenty of talk at a democratic gathering; but there was too much disagreement for the accomplishment of any decided results.

RATES ARE SUSPENDED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—A material advance in freight rates on heavy traffic in apples in carloads recently proposed by western trunk lines, effective November 1, was suspended today by the Interstate Commerce commission until February 28, pending further investigation. Formal complaints on the proposed rates have reached the commission from shippers.

M. G. CUNIFF HAS BEEN SUGGESTED AS A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

In the Event of Democratic Success in the Election of a Majority of the Members of the Upper House it is More Than Probable That the Statesman From Yavapai County Will be Chosen Presiding Officer.

If the upper house of the Arizona legislature should be democratic there is a strong probability that M. G. Cunniff, of Yavapai county, will be a candidate for president of that body; that is if Mr. Cunniff, who has received the nomination for senator at the hands of the democrats of his county should be elected.

This matter has been discussed to some little extent among democrats in this county and it is believed here that the Crown King man would be accorded the honor. Neither Mr. Davis nor Mr. Wood, who are the Maricopa county candidates, would seek the honor in the event of his election and it is altogether likely their support would go to Cunniff.

Cunniff is a scholarly man, and is a good parliamentarian. Then, he is radical enough to suit the most exacting democrat in Arizona and that would be a strong factor in his favor in the event of democratic success. He was a member of the constitutional convention, and as chairman of the revision committee, probably did more hard work than any other member of that body.

GOLD IS GONE

BERNE, Switz., Oct. 30.—There has been a mysterious theft of bars of gold of a value of $26,000 which had been consigned to the Swiss National Bank by London houses.

Eight cases of bars of gold having a total value of more than $200,000 were shipped from the British capital. When they reached here it was found that one of the cases had been emptied of its gold and bars of lead had been substituted.

AMERICAN POPE MAY BE A POSSIBILITY

Increase in Number of Cardinals in This Country Indicates Change in Catholic Government.

ROME, Oct. 30.—Comments on the forthcoming consistory at which 17 cardinals, including three Americans, will be created, continues to emphasize the great significance of Pope Pius' decision to grant America four representatives in the sacred college. By some, it is asserted the way is being paved for the advent of an American pope. It is pointed out the greatest body of Catholics in the world live in America and its possessions, the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam and Hawaii. Not only are American Catholics superior in number, but in deep religious feeling, loyalty to the Holy See and in wealth and generosity. An Irish-American pope is suggested for the day when it is no longer considered necessary that the papacy be held in Italy.

SUPREME COURT ENDS ALL STATE CONTROL

Tribunal of Last Resort Virtually Eliminates States From Consideration of Transportation Matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Complete control of railroads by the interstate commerce commission and virtual elimination of state commissions from such control is foreshadowed in an opinion handed down today by the Supreme court of the United States. The court held that all locomotives, cars and other equipment used by any railroad, which is highway of interstate commerce, must comply with the federal safety appliance act. The court held that compliance with the federal law is compulsory on all railroads engaged in the transportation of freight or persons from one state to another. It held also that the cars and equipment of such roads, even if engaged in transportation within state lines, must be considered as part and parcel of the state, and therefore under jurisdiction of the federal commission. Members of the interstate commerce commission are jubilant at the supreme court's ruling which was unanimous.

DUFFY IS MARRIED.

ALAMEDA, Cal., Oct. 30.—George L. (Duffy) Lewis, left fielder of the Boston Red Sox and Miss Eleanor Ruth Keamee of Boston, were married last today at San Rafael and departed on their honeymoon, which will be spent in this state. They will return here for a week's visit before the groom goes to Florida to join his team for winter practice. Lewis met his bride in Boston and they planned to be married at the close of the American league season. The bride's mother, however, asked the couple to come to California for the ceremony.

FOWLER AT TUCSON.

TUCSON, Oct. 30.—Covering a distance of 98 miles in 90 minutes Aviator Robert C. Fowler arrived here from Maricopa at 2:10 this afternoon. He was cheered by a large crowd as he alighted on the campus of the University of Arizona. In landing the machine smashed against the grand stand on the football field and was slightly damaged. Fowler was unhurt. He remains here to meet Rodgers who is coming west tomorrow.

COURT STATES RULE OF LAW

Bordwell Holds McNamara Defense Has no Right to Challenge Juror Because of Opposition to Death Penalty.

SEVEN MEN ARE IN JURY BOX

Broadening of Rule by the Court Will Have the Effect of Expediting Progress in Conduct of Famous Trial.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—Judge Walter Bordwell of the superior court today accused the attorneys for the defense in the McNamara case of trying to circumvent his rulings and rejected two challenges against talesmen, which formed the basis of his supposition. He also refused the defense the privilege of challenging a juror who said he would not convict the prisoner on circumstantial evidence alone, and held this challenge is available only to the state.

Under these rulings the jury box contained tonight at the close of the trial for today three men passed for cause by both sides, in addition to four so qualified when today's session began.

To both rulings today the defense noted exceptions. For the first time during the trial the defense brought into court today one of its investigators, R. H. Fitzgerald, a young attorney, to confront a talesman, George W. Johnson, a retired superintendent of an iron foundry, after he said he had not told anyone of his belief that the Times building was blown up by union men and had not talked to anyone about the case.

Fitzgerald testified that he visited Johnson and asked him for some statistical information and later talked with him about the Times case. He could not remember what was said without referring to his report. Attorney Darrow announced that Fitzgerald will testify further tomorrow.

Johnson is the man, challenged for implied bias on the ground that he is opposed to conviction in cases involving the death penalty. The challenge was refused by the court specifically on the ground that the defense had no right to prefer. There were challenges against Frampton and Winter on the same grounds. They will also be denied, but they met disapproval by the court as being intended to circumvent the previous ruling that men are not disqualified because of their expressed opinions that McNamara is guilty of murder. Both men contradicted themselves somewhat, the court said, under the examination by opposing counsel. The court also held that they got their opinions entirely from common report, public rumor and reading the papers, all of which do not except talesmen from qualifying. To this the defense objected, basing it on the grounds that Winter's opinion concerning strikes is based on personal knowledge, as he once replaced a striker and was pelted with eggs and other missiles. Sam Mendenhall, an orange grower, was accepted as a farmer, was under examination by the defense when adjournment came.

CHICO, Oct. 30.—After two days' search Laban Perdue, 26, son of Dr. L. C. Perdue, of this city, was found today in a tree under which bayed several vicious dogs. Perdue, who had been tried for more than 24 hours, told his rescuers that during that time he had eaten nothing but wild grapes, and an owl which he had captured, and devoured raw. Perdue is half-witted, and has often wandered from home.

BUSSE DID IT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Former Mayor Fred A. Busse, of Chicago, is responsible indirectly for the election of William Lorimer to the United States senate, according to testimony given today by former Speaker Edward D. Shurtliff of the Illinois legislature before the senatorial investigation committee. Shurtliff said he owed his election to Busse's support. Previous witnesses testified that Lorimer's election was the outgrowth of Shurtliff's election as speaker. Shurtliff testified that so far as he knew there was no corruption connected with Lorimer's election.

RODGERS WILL MAKE TRIP TO THIS CITY

Telegram Received Last Night From El Paso, Texas, Contains Information to That Effect.

EL PASO, Oct. 30.—Aviator C. P. Rodgers plans to resume his transcontinental flight at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning. He expects to arrive at Deming, N. M., at noon and fly thence to Bowie, Benson and Tucson, Ariz., there to meet Aviator Fowler. From Tucson he will make a side trip to Phoenix and proceed thence to Los Angeles. Rodgers said tonight that he will not attempt to fly back to Sheepshead, New York, but probably will make his home in Los Angeles, where he expects an aeroplane factory engagement teaching aviation.

Efforts are being made to have him continue his flight along the Pacific coast to Oregon.

BRIGADIER IS DEAD.

NIAGARA FALLS, Oct. 30.—Brig. Gen. P. H. Ray, U. S. A., retired, died today at Port Niagara, aged 70. He saw active service from 1861—1906.
